Congratulations, Class of 2020

The years of hard work have finally come to fruition. We know your final months didn't go according to plan, but you battled and adjusted to a new normal. Even in the chaos of the past two months, you pushed ahead and crossed the finish line. Congratulations, Class of 2020!

We'd be remiss if we didn't extend a special congratulations to Daniel Kwantes, Micah Postma, and Alex Van Den Top. Those three graduates put in years of hard work at KDCR, and their presence made the station a better place. Thank you for your efforts, and congratulations on completing your degrees!

Chizzy's Corner

I just wanted to take a moment to reiterate how proud we are of the Class of 2020. Whether you graduated from Dordt University, another local college, or an area high school, your accomplishments are important, and they will not be forgotten.

Yes, 2020 has thrown us for quite the loop. Even as Iowa and other states start to reopen, we know the journey is far from over. But it's during times like these where we get the chance to show our true colors.

If you've been reading from the Today Devotional this month, then you've noticed a theme. Bret Lamsma, this month's author, is focusing each daily devotional on all the things community is. Community is caring, growing, and encouraging, among many other superlatives.

A community is also its people -- those who are young, old, and everyone else in-between. So let's celebrate community. Let's celebrate our people by taking a moment to congratulate the graduates from the Class of 2020.
