

Happy Thanksgiving!

During this season of thanks, we want to take a moment to share just a few of the things we at KDCR are profoundly grateful for, in no particular order.

- A dedicated staff
- Student workers
- Both loyal and new KDCR listeners
- Our donors and sponsors
- Dordt University
- God's calling and our mission
- And so much more!

We're remarkably blessed, and this season of thanks is the perfect time to reflect upon and share that appreciation.

1 Chronicles 16:34: "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever."

A Friendly Reminder

The day after Thanksgiving marks the return of an annual KDCR tradition, one we've been proud to continue since essentially KDCR's inception. Our Christmas music and holiday programming starts on November 29, and we keep it going all the way through Christmas Day.

We're thrilled to get into the spirit of the season, and we hope you are as well.
